The following five factors will be considered by the Board of Appeals and should be addressed by the area variance application:

- Whether an undesirable change will be produced in the character of the neighborhood or a detriment to nearby properties will be created by the granting of the variance.

2. Whether the benefit sought by the applicant can be achieved by some method, feasible for the applicant to pursue, other than the variance.
3. Whether the requested area variance is substantial.
4. Whether the proposed variance will have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood or district.
5. Whether the alleged difficulty was self-created; which consideration shall be relevant to the decision of the Board of Appeals but shall not necessarily preclude the granting of the area variance.

Who May Appeal

Appeals to the Board of Appeals may be taken by any person or Town Official aggrieved or affected by any provision of this Law or by any decision including any order to stop, cease, and desist issued by the Zoning Officer in enforcing the provisions of this Law.

Rules and Procedures for Filing Appeals and Applications

- Any appeal shall be made by filing the same with the Zoning Officer within sixty (60) days after the date of the Zoning Officer's disapproval of the building permit application.
- All appeals and applications made to the Board shall be in writing and using standard forms prescribed by the Board.
- All appeals and applications shall refer to the specific provisions of the Zoning Law.
- All appeals and applications shall set forth names and addresses of all adjoining owners including those across public roads from the subject property.
- Appeals and applications before the Board of Appeals shall be accompanied by a payment to the Town in accordance with a Fee Schedule, provided at the Town Clerk's Office.

Questions regarding this Application can be directed to the Zoning Code Enforcement Officer, Don Bowen, at (315) 730-2654. Applications for variance hearings cannot be accepted until an application for a building permit or zoning permit has been received and denied. The entire Town of Fleming Zoning Code is available on the Town's website at www.townoffleming.com. ZBA Meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month. The meeting notice will be published in the local newspaper at least 10 days before the meeting date.
